WPT REIT
WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

As indicated in the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics of WPT Industrial Real Estate Investment Trust (the “REIT”), the REIT, its subsidiaries and WPT Capital Advisors, LLC (the “WPT Entities”) have a strong commitment to the conduct of their business in a lawful and ethical manner. Trustees, directors, officers, managers and employees of the WPT Entities (collectively, “WPT Personnel”) are expected to talk to supervisors, managers or other appropriate personnel about concerns they may have in respect of illegal or unethical behavior and when in doubt about the best course of action in a particular situation. It is the policy of the WPT Entities not to allow retaliation for reports of such conduct made in good faith. It is, at the same time, unacceptable to file a report knowing it is false.

The WPT Entities require honest and accurate recording and reporting of information. The WPT Entities’ accounting records are relied upon to produce reports for management, directors, managers, securityholders, governmental agencies and persons with whom the WPT Entities do business. All of the REIT’s financial statements and the books, records and accounts on which they are based must appropriately reflect the WPT Entities’ activities and conform to applicable legal, accounting and auditing requirements and to the WPT Entities’ system of internal controls.

Confidentiality of complaints received by the Chair (including the identity of the complainant and information that could be reasonably expected to reveal such the complainant's identity) will be maintained to the fullest extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an appropriate review. When possible, the Chair will acknowledge receipt of a complaint, although it is not the intention to communicate to the person making the complaint the status of its review or resolution.

Upon receipt of a complaint, the Chair will determine whether the complaint relates to a questionable accounting or auditing matter. Any complaints that do so relate will be immediately brought to the attention, and reviewed under the direction, of the Audit Committee of the REIT's Board of Trustees. Prompt and appropriate corrective action will be taken when and as warranted in the judgement of the Audit Committee.

The Chair will maintain a log of all complaints that are received, tracking their receipt, investigation and resolution.

2. Treatment of WPT Personnel

The WPT Entities will not, and will not threaten to, discharge, demote, suspend, threaten, harass, impose any penalty on or in any manner discriminate or take any reprisal or retaliation measures against any WPT Personnel in the terms and conditions of employment based upon any lawful actions with respect to good faith reporting of complaints as contemplated in these procedures or the seeking of advice with respect to such reporting, or indicating a good faith intent to make such a report.

However, any allegation that proves not to be substantiated and which proves to have been made maliciously or knowingly to be false will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense and may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.
